

NATIONAL CENTER ON SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

May 7, 2021

Dear Amie,

Thank you for reaching out to the National Center on Sexual Exploitation.

Please note that this email is in response to the inquiry or information we received from you. This email correspondence does not create a lawyer-client relationship with the reader. It is not legal advice and should not be regarded as such.

We would like to sincerely apologize for the situation you have gone through. However, we have reviewed your request and are unfortunately unable to provide assistance at this time. Our inability to accept this matter should not be considered a reflection on the merit of your request or the matter you have brought to our attention. It is sometimes the case that we are at maximum capacity and cannot, with integrity and competence, assume additional work or clients. Also because of our status as a nonprofit organization we are permitted by law to handle only matters falling within the purview of our charter and are limited from engaging in certain tasks.

NCOSE does not have any formal relationship with the sources listed below, legally restricting us from being able to fully provide a recommendation. However, we do hope that they may provide some helpful information to you.

- <https://cyberbullying.org/get-cyberbullying-help>

As noted, in declining to handle this matter or to fulfill the request you have submitted, we are not expressing any opinion concerning on the merits of your claim or situation.

We are sorry we could not be more helpful.

Best regards,

The Law Center

will be working on

You are to check your mailbox or front door for it

Thu 4:30 PM

Hello

Once you receive the check You are to proceed to your bank ATM stand for the deposit and send me the deposit receipt once it done for confirmation

Thu 5:25 PM

Hey, I dont have a check, or package. Also, I am using a bank in a different state which is why I was choosing to direct deposit when I started work.

Microsoft account

We've noticed some unusual activity on your account. To help protect you from potential fraud or abuse, we've temporarily locked your account. We know this is frustrating, but we can help you get back into your account with just a few steps.

Why accounts are locked and disabled

Microsoft accounts are usually locked if the account holder has violated our Microsoft Services Agreement. Here are some common reasons why accounts are locked, though not all account locks occur for these reasons:
